Attachment "1"

POLICY STATEMENT: Policy establishing an official compensation package for public officials regarding food, beverages, and other County related items provided to officials while performing official duties.

APPLICATION: This policy applies to Columbia County Commissioner, Position 3 ("Position 3").

POLICY:

As part of their official compensation package as that term is used under ORS 244.040(2)(a), Position 3 may receive the following from the County:

1. Food, beverage, and other related items provided by the County to covered officials including any of their relatives or household members who are accompanying them during a County-related event such as, but not limited to, meetings, team building activities, potlucks, employee appreciation meals, retreats, and conferences.
2. Items with the County's logo provided to them in their role as a covered official such as clothing, pens, paper, water bottles, etc.
3. This policy does not apply to:
 - a. Food, lodging, transportation, and other related costs reimbursed by the County and covered under existing County reimbursement policies.
 - b. Food, beverages, and other related items provided by the County to covered officials that are also available to the public at large.
 - c. Items that are considered "gifts" under ORS 244.020(7).
4. Compensation provided as part of an official compensation package may be subject to income tax per the IRS rules on taxable fringe benefits. Provided food and beverages are not intended to be taxable fringe benefits.
5. Examples of when this policy would apply:
 - a. Occasionally During Commission meetings, food and beverages are provided to the Commission. Those meals would be considered part of their official compensation.

- b. The County provides items such as water bottles, sweatshirts, coats, etc. during the employee appreciation event and at various times throughout the year. These items would be considered part of the official compensation package.
- c. Public Official, while performing the County's related business, is provided a meal by an outside third party, this would not be considered part of the official compensation package and must be analyzed under ORS 244.
