to the Enhanced Law Enforcement ) Advisory Committee )
_____ )

ORDER NO. 79 - 2009

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners recognizes the need to explore options in providing law enforcement in the County given recent budget cuts and projections; and

WHEREAS, the Board desires to establish a law enforcement advisory committee to:

- 1) Determine the present level of law enforcement in all parts of the County;
- 2) Determine the manner in which law enforcement services are being met;
- 3) Determine what level of service is needed throughout the County, both short and long term;
- 4) Research various service delivery models for delivering the needed services to all parts of the County;
- 5) Explore potential delivery models considering fiscal impact, manpower impact, political reality, sustainability, geographical factors, positive and negative impacts on related criminal justice systems, statutory requirements and restrictions; and
- 6) Deliver a written report and recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners as soon as reasonably possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:
