Dear Commissioners,

My name is Josh Parks, and I live in Portland often visit Great Vow Zen Center; I strongly urge you to protect the community and this sensitive ecological area from the dangers of the NEXT energy project and reject the application.

Such a plan would severely, negatively affect the activities at GVZC as well as other farming activities nearby.

Please reject the application from NEXT Energy to protect our local farmers, wildlife, human health, and our Monastery's sacred stillness and natural beauty.

Sincerely, Josh
