GENERAL STATEMENT OF DUTIES: Work in conjunction with community resources and coordinate available services to provide ongoing care and supervision for juveniles and families. Perform professional casework services, counseling, crisis intervention, guidance and supervision of children and families under departmental jurisdiction. While the work is similar to a Juvenile Probation Officer I, the level of responsibility assumed and the complexity of duties is greater and includes handling more complex cases, performing a unique function of the court requiring specialized knowledge and abilities. Employees at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise and are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies of the work unit. Serve as and perform all duties assigned to 'Juvenile Counselors' under ORS 419A.010 (1) (a) and 419A.012. Do related work as required.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

Conduct personal interviews with troubled or delinquent minors, their parents and/or custodial supervisors to ascertain personal needs of the client. Confer with parents, law enforcement personnel, victims and others familiar with the juvenile to determine facts and dispositions in individual cases. Maintain chronological case histories on all clients.

Take youth who have violated court orders into custody.

Search offenders* (person and property such as rooms, school lockers, etc.) and collect samples for urinalysis (UA)*.

Screen intake referrals for legal sufficiency and appropriate action in conjunction with the District Attorney's Office. Present social and jurisdictional histories, facts of cases and dispositional recommendations to the Court upon request. Carry out dispositions ordered by the Court.

Prepare correspondence, departmental reports, progress reports, legal petitions and court reports.

Correspond with and provide police reports, assessments, etc., to youth offenders' legal counsel.

Work with department staff, other social work agencies, schools, churches, public health agencies, law enforcement agencies and others to develop and implement treatment and rehabilitation programs for individual cases.

Evaluate placement decisions and supervisor youth in and out of home placement, residential care and detention.

Provide secure transport of juveniles* with knowledge and use of correct restraints.

Develop and coordinate youth diversion programs. Prepare or assisting in preparation of grants, written reports and record keeping necessary for effective operation of youth programs.
